

Glucose Sensor Technology: Aligning Patient Preferences and Therapeutic Goals

The purpose of this webinar is to assist healthcare providers caring for those with diabetes; build their competency in using glucose sensor technology.

Learning Objectives

As a result of active participation in this session, participants will be able to:

- Describe what rtCGM is and how they differ from other glucose monitors.
- Demonstrate how glucose sensors can improve patient safety, act as a feedback tool for lifestyle change and simplify diabetes management for clinicians.
- Connect the appropriate glucose monitoring option with the patient's preferences and therapeutic goals.
